

COMING SOON, EXCITING NEW ADDITIONS TO CORNWALL PUBLIC LIBRARY'S ELECTRONIC RESOURCES!

KANOPY ... thoughtful entertainment. Kanopy is a streaming service that has thousands of independent and foreign films, award winning documentaries, rare and hard to find titles, film festival favourites and world cinema collections. Canadian films are also highlighted.

KANOPY KIDS features educational and entertaining videos, films and TV series that promote empathy, learning and STEM skills.

Plus.... two new additions for the genealogy buffs:

FIND MY PAST – Discover your roots with the largest online database of British and Irish records available.

PDRH–IGD - a directory with over 2,500,000 records of all vital events (baptisms, marriages and burials) celebrated by the Catholic church in Quebec and French Canada from 1621 to 1849, plus protestant marriages, and a genealogical dictionary of families (Family Reconstructions).

[Le PDRH–IGD est un répertoire de tous les actes de baptêmes, mariages et sépultures catholiques célébrés au Québec entre 1621 et 1849, soit plus de 2.5 millions d'actes répertoriés, ainsi qu'un dictionnaire généalogique des familles (reconstructions familiales).]

And finally, it's back!

MANGO LANGUAGES –A fun-infused way to learn a new language. Mango prepares learners for realistic conversations and strengthens everyday communication skills in over 70 world languages, including English.
